

PALESTINE

UNCUT

Premier screening : 5 June 2007

Festival screenings : 16-17 June 2007

Special Palestine Film Festival exposing 40 years of occupation

MELBOURNE - AUSTRALIA

PALESTINE FILM PREVIEW

Premier screening

Tuesday 5 June 2007 • 7.00pm to 9.00pm

ACMI Cinemas • Australian Centre for the Moving Image • Federation Square • Flinders Street • City

acmi

australian centre
for the moving image

Like Twenty Impossibles (2003)

[English, Hebrew & Arabic / English subtitles]

Director | Annemarie Jacir

Running time: 17 minutes

Until When ... (2004)

[Arabic, English / English subtitles]

Director Dahna Abourahme

Running time: 76 minutes

Guest speaker: Journalist Maher Mughabi, Ticket Price: $15 full, $10 concession

Film Unclassified: No person under the age of 15 years shall be admitted to the screening, unless in the company of a parent or adult guardian. To purchase tickets, please visit the ACMI Box Office at Federation Square. Tickets are also available at www.acmi.net.au/ticketing.htm

PALESTINE FILM FESTIVAL

10 films screened over 2 days

Saturday 16 June & Sunday 17 June 2007

Village Roadshow Theatrette • State Library of Victoria • Entry 3 • 179-181 Latrobe Street • City

in conjunction with the "Occupation" exhibition

'67

end Israel's Occupation of the West Bank, Gaza Strip and East Jerusalem

Full exhibition program and presentation times available on www.67.com.au

A Women for Palestine Initiative supported by Australians for Palestine and the Palestinian Community Association of Victoria